I. RELIEF REQUESTED

23 Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b)(4) and this Court's August 25, 2017 Order Setting Trial
24 Date and Related Dates (Dkt. No. #13), Plaintiff Advanced Hair Restoration, LLC and Defendant
25 Hair Restoration Centers, LLC move to amend the case schedule and extend the deadlines for 26 joinder and to amend the pleadings. Having met and conferred, the parties request that this Court stay the deadline until seven-days after Defendant identifies the individuals who created the allegedly infringing website in this matter.

27
II. AUTHORITY

28 Plaintiff filed suit on May 5, 2017 and this Court issued an Order Regarding Initial 29 Disclosures, Joint Status Report, and Early Settlement shortly thereafter. Dkt. # 1, 5. At the parties'
30 request, this Court extended those initial deadlines to allow Defendant's counsel to get up to speed.

JOINT MOTION AND ORDER TO AMEND CASE SCHEDULE -

1 Dkt. # 10. The Court's Order Setting Trial Date and Related Dates followed the parties' submission
2 of their joint status report.

3 This Court may modify case management deadlines for good cause. Fed. R. Civ. P.
4 16(b)(4). Good cause considers the diligence of the parties seeking the modification; a district
5 court may modify the pretrial schedule "if it cannot reasonably be met with the diligence of the 6 party seeking the extension." See Johnson v. Mammoth Recreations, Inc., 975 F.2d 604, 609 (9th
7 Cir. 1992) (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 16((b)(4) advisory committee notes (1983)).

8 Good cause exists here.

9 This case concerns Plaintiff's allegations of Defendant's intentional infringement of 10 Advanced Hair Restoration's registered copyrights in certain photographs, and its attempt to 11 confuse customers and compete unfairly in the hair transplant procedure business. Dkt. # 1, ¶ 1.
12 Defendant generally denies these allegations and represents that if there was any infringement,
13 such infringement was (1) inadvertent and (2) the fault of as-yet unidentified web developers.

14 Defendant has not identified these web developers. Its initial disclosures provide only that:

15 Individuals from the developer hired by Defendant to create the alleged website 16 will have knowledge and testimony regarding the alleged website, the alleged images, and Defendant's good faith actions relevant to the Complaint.

17 This information is insufficient for Plaintiff to identify, investigate, or determine whether these 18 developers should be joined to this action.

19 Plaintiff's counsel conferred with Defendant's counsel about identifying these web
20 developers by email on September 19, 2017 and issued discovery seeking this information on 21 September 15, 2017. The parties agreed to extend the deadline until Defendant provides this 22 information, whether as a supplement to their initial disclosures or in response to Plaintiff's initial 23 discovery requests.

24 III. CONCLUSION

25 For the aforementioned reasons, the parties' respectfully request that this Court amend the 26 case schedule and stay the deadlines for joinder and amending the complaint for a reasonable
27 amount of time—seven-days after Defendant provides this information.

DATED this 22nd day of September, 2017.
